

Data protection obligations of .FI domain name registrars

Customer's rights

- To know which parties are using their personal data
- To know the purpose for which their personal data is being used
- To access and rectify their incorrect data
- To restrict the processing of their personal data
- To lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority

The .FI domain name registrar's and Traficom's independent obligations

- To define what personal data is processed/collected
- To define the purposes for which personal data is processed/collected
- To provide instructions on the secure processing of personal data
- To report data breaches within 72 hours to the supervisory authority (and, if necessary, to the data subject)
- To respond to information requests
- To process personal data securely
- Responsibility for their own dealers' and/or service providers' activities and the lawful processing of personal data
- To take care of the deletion of data subjects' personal data from its own systems